ANNUAL
ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF
THE ULWAR STATE, FOR
1892-93.

CHAPTER I.

PRINCIPAL EVENTS OF THE YEAR.

Before entering into a detailed account of the administration of the State, it appears desirable to mention the principal events of note which occurred during the year under report.

2. The first and most prominent event was the admission of His Highness, Maharaja Jey Singhji Bahadur, into the Mayo College at Ajmere. It was arranged in the month of July last, when His Highness was on a visit to Mount Abu, that he should be sent to the Mayo College to receive his education and the following month His Highness commenced his studies in the 5th class.

3. Under orders of the Government of India, conveyed in Political Agent's letter No. 947, dated 19th July 1893, the services of Mr. F. St. G. Manners Smith, Executive-Engineer, Kotah State, were lent to this State and he was appointed guardian to His Highness.

4. The accommodation in the Ulwar House at the Mayo College having been considered insufficient, and as the required additions to the existing building could not have been completed for some considerable time and would have been expensive, it was arranged, with the approval of the Agent to the Governor-General, to rent a house close to the College formerly occupied by the Engineer-in-Chief, Rajputana-Malwa Railway.

5. Thakur Amar Singh of Jodhpur was sent to Ajmere as His Highness' companion. He lives in the same house with the Maharaja and receives his education at the Mayo College.

6. Pandit Chuni Lal, formerly Inspector of Schools in the Ulwar State, was appointed tutor to His Highness. He keeps, in addition, all the accounts in connection with His Highness' expenses in Ajmere, and acts as a general assistant to the guardian.

7. Pratapji of Jodhpur is the chief attendant on His Highness, and a limited number of other attendants and retainers have been placed on the Ajmere list to look after the comfort and convenience of the Maharaja.

Attendants,

8. It is a matter of great satisfaction to note that His Highness is quite happy in Ajmere, takes interest in his studies, and is very fond of all manly games and athletic sports.

General remarks.

9. In April 1893, it was suggested to the Political Agent that the hand of the daughter of His Highness, the Maharaja of Ulwar with the daughter of His Highness, the Maharaja of Kishengarh, might be secured in marriage to His Highness, the Maharaja of Ulwar. A reference having been made to the Agent to the Governor-General for Rajputana on the subject, the latter saw no objection to the proposal. Opportunity was taken, during the visit of His Highness, the Maharaja of Kishengarh, to Ulwar about the end of April, to discuss the subject with His Highness in person. A formal proposal was made to the Kishengarh Durbar in the beginning of May 1893, and the betrothal was confirmed. About the middle of October 1893, a deputation consisting of the members of Council and other Sirdars from the Kishengarh State reached Ulwar to celebrate the Tika ceremony, which was performed with great eclat at the city Palace on the morning of the 18th idem. The Durbar Hall and the open front were crowded, and seats were arranged in the Shish Mahl for the European ladies and gentlemen of the station to witness the ceremony. The deputation left Ulwar on the 21st October, and Khillats worth Rs. 750 were presented to them at the time of their departure.

VISITS.

10. His Highness, the Maharaja of Jodhpur, accompanied by the Maharaja Kumar, the heir apparent, and Maharaja Colonel Sir Pertap Singhji, visited Ulwar on the morning of the 31st December 1892. As the visit was one of condolence in connection with the premature and lamented death of His Highness, the late Maharaja Mangal Singhji Bahadur of Ulwar, there was no public reception, but members of the State Council waited at the Railway station to receive His Highness. The Maharaja, attended by Colonel Sir Pertap Singhji and the members of the Ulwar State Council, immediately on arrival, repaired to the city Palace to attend a durbar of condolence, where His Highness, the Maharaja of Ulwar, and all the State officials were present. After the usual ceremonies were over, His Highness went to the Moti-Doongri Palace, where all arrangements had been made for his comfort during his stay in Ulwar. On his arrival there, a salute of 19 guns was fired. Colonel E. A. Fraser, Political Agent, paid a visit to the Maharaja in the evening.

Visit of His Highness, the Maharaja of Jodhpur.

The next morning, Maharaja Colonel Sir Pertap Singh went out shooting, while His Highness, the Maharaja, inspected the Horse-Breeding Department. In the afternoon, His Highness paid a return visit to the Political Agent.

In the evening of the 2nd January 1893, their Highnesses, the Maharajas of Jodhpur and Ulwar, with their respective sirdars, dined together.

11. At the time of departure, the usual Khillats and presents valued at Rs. 7,750 were laid before His Highness, the Maharaja of Jodhpur, but he declined to accept them, on the ground, that, his visit was one of condolence. A beautiful sword and a fine pony were then presented to the Maharaja Kumar and were accepted. His Highness, the Maharaja of Ulwar, the Political Agent, and the members of the State Council, together with State officials, were present at the station to bid the illustrious guest goodbye. His Highness, before his departure, made an eloquent speech, expressing extreme regret at the loss, the State had sustained, by the untimely death of the late Maharaja, and his brotherly sympathy with the young chief.

12. The Maharaja and party left Ulwar by the Special Train at 11-45 A. M. on the 3rd January 1893, and his departure was announced by a salute of 19 guns.

13. Colonel G. H. Trevor, C. S. I., Agent to the Governor-General for Rajputana, reached Ulwar by the Mail-train on the morning of the 7th February 1893. His Highness the Maharaja, the Political Agent, the members of Council and other State officials were present at the station to receive him. On alighting from the carriage, a salute of 13 guns was fired. A guard of Honor was in attendance at the Railway station as well as at the Agency, where he was encamped. On the 8th February, the Agent to the Governor-General went out shooting to Bukhtpura. On the morning of the 9th, he visited the Jail, and at 12 noon, the members of Council, the State officials and other non-officials waited on him to pay their respects. On the 10th, he inspected the Courts and distributed prizes to the successful students of the High and Thakur schools.

14. Colonel Trevor and party left Ulwar on the night of the 11th. His departure was private. The chief, being a minor, the ceremony of official visit and return visit, was dispensed with.

15. His Imperial and Royal Highness, the Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria, and suite arrived at Ulwar by Special-train at 8 A. M. on the 19th February 1893, and alighted at His Highness the Maharaja's private station. His Imperial and Royal Highness was received, on the platform, by His Highness the Maharaja, the Political Agent, the members of Council and other State officials, and a salute of 21 guns was fired on arrival of the train. A guard of Honor of the Ulwar Imperial Service Troops was drawn up opposite the station. The State elephants and horses, fully caparisoned, were present outside the station.

16. On leaving the station, His Imperial and Royal Highness was escorted to his carriage by His Highness the Maharaja, the Political Agent and the Council, and was accompanied to the Bani Bilas Palace, which was prepared and furnished for his reception. The road to the Bani Bilas Palace was lined by the Ulwar Imperial Service Troops, and an escort of the Ulwar Imperial Service Lancers accompanied His Imperial and Royal Highness. A guard of Honor was also drawn up at the Bani Bilas Palace.

17. The same afternoon, His Imperial and Royal Highness visited the city Palace, armoury, library, &c., and then inspected the stables and horse breeding establishments. In the evening at 8 P. M., a State banquet was given at the Palace. The garden together with the Palace and the marble lake were illuminated, and there was also a display of fireworks.

18. His Imperial and Royal Highness, on the 20th February, went to the Siriska camp, where he stayed six days and shot two tigers. His Imperial and Royal Highness and party returned to Ulwar on the 27th and left by special train the same day. His departure was announced by a salute of 21 guns.

19. His Highness, the Maharaja of Kishengarh, accompanied by his two brothers, arrived at Ulwar on the 28th April 1893, and was received, at the Railway station, by the members of the State Council. Immediately on arrival, he went to the City Palace to attend a Durbar of condolence, where His Highness, the Maharaja of Ulwar, and all the state officials were present. After the usual ceremonies were over, His Highness, the Maharaja of Kishengarh, repaired to the Moti-Dongri Palace, where arrangements had been made for his accommodation. During his stay in Ulwar, His Highness received a formal visit from Major, T. C. Pears, Political Agent, and returned the visit. His Highness visited the State Library and armoury and inspected the Imperial Service Troops. He left Ulwar on the 1st May 1893, and his departure was announced by a salute of 15 guns.

20. Her Highness, the Dadiji Maharaj of Bikaner, arrived at Ulwar by special train on the 5th August 1893, and alighted at the Maharaja's private station. Her Highness went to the city Palace the same afternoon to observe the usual ceremonies of condolence and returned to the station in the evening, staying there, for two days. On the morning of the 7th, a formal reception was arranged, and Her Highness entered the city in procession accompanied by His Highness the Maharaja, the members of Council and all the State officials. During her stay in Ulwar, she visited the Hill fort, the Moti-Dongri Palace and the Siliserh lake. Her Highness left Ulwar on the 23rd October 1893, and Khillats worth Rs. 14,634 were presented to her and party at the time of her departure.

Visit of His Highness, the Maharaja of Kishengarh.

CHAPTER IV.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

PART I.

IMPERIAL SERVICE TROOPS.

I.—Reorganization.

31. The troops were originally reorganized in November 1888, under the guidance of Colonel (then Major) O. Moore Creagh, V. C., whose services had specially been lent for the purpose by the Government of India.

Organization of the Imperial Service Troops.

32. There were two Regiments of Cavalry (the first and the second Lancers) of the strength of 680 men. Of these, all the old men were transferred from the first to the second Lancers or to the other Irregular Cavalry Regiments, the young and the strong men were retained in the first Lancers, which is now the Imperial Service Cavalry.

Cavalry.

33. Out of the three Regiments of Infantry, consisting of a total strength of 1,252 men of all ranks, about 600 were selected for the Fattch Paltan, which is now the Imperial Service Infantry.

Infantry.

The men, who were rejected, were either transferred to the other Regiments or discharged with gratuities or pensions.

II.—STAFF OFFICE.

34. This office was established in November 1888. The late Diwan Ram Chander was appointed Staff Officer with the rank of Captain. His Highness, the late Maharaja, took a special interest in the reorganization of the troops and the formation of the Staff Office, which he personally supervised, and he exercised strict economy in all branches of the Department; at the same time keeping in view the efficiency of the service. Most of the best workmen and artisans, &c. in the State were selected and employed for service in the Military Department.

Formation of the Staff Office.

35. On removal from office of the late Diwan Ram Chander in June 1892, Major Debi Singh, who had held the post of Commanding Officer, Fattch Paltan, with credit for a number of years, was appointed Staff Officer on Rs. 300 a month.

36. All purchases and sales, connected with the Imperial Service Troops, are made by a committee, consisting of officers of both the Regiments and some experts of the Civil Department. This committee is held every month, when all contracts are given and old and unserviceable articles are examined and set aside for sale by auction.

Purchases and sales.

37. All military stores are kept in a room, attached to the Staff Office, and issued to the Regiments as required.

Stores.

38. There is a workshop, connected with the stores, where all sorts of iron, wood and leather work are done. The pay of most of the workmen, whose names stand on the roll of the other departments of the State, is not charged to the Military Department, although they work in the Staff Office. It is proposed, however, to remove this anomaly.

Workshop.

Lances for the cavalry, saddles for the Imperial Service Transport, cotton head and heel ropes, head stalls, slings for pack saddles, tobras of camels' hair and sutlee muzammas, &c., are all made in this workshop.

39. A large Baradari in the Bani Bilas garden is used as a magazine. All ammunition, received from the Government arsenals, and old rifles, received back from the Fateh Paltan, are kept here. A non-commissioned officer of the Imperial Service Infantry has charge of the magazine.

Magazine.

Two mistries, one of whom has been specially trained at the Bombay Arsenal, together with their assistants, clean and repair the rifles.

40. The Staff Office is the centre Telephone Station. It connects both the Regiments, His Highness' Bani Bilas garden Palace, the Residency, the Council buildings and the Buggi Khana. The working of the Telephones is efficiently supervised by Mr. Henry Heatherly. There are four line-men on Rs. 27 a month to do the work, and the annual cost of materials comes to about Rs. 100.

Telephones.

41. The expenditure incurred under head "Staff Office" during the years 1889-90 to 1892-93 is shown in the following table.

Expenditure.

No.	Particulars.	1889-90.	1890-91.	1891-92.	1892-93.	Remarks.
1	Pay	10,552 0	10,103 0	6,346 0	7,407 0	The expenditure in 1889-90 and 91 includes Major O. Moore Creagh's pay.
2	Stationery	428 0	280 0	243 0	263 0
3	Band instruments	0 0	339 0	3,777 0	0 0
4	Store	84 0	59 0	170 0	376 0

	Total ..	13,091 0	15,961 0	11,589 0	9,234 0

III.—IMPERIAL SERVICE CAVALRY AND INFANTRY.

42. These Regiments were formed in November 1888.

The Infantry band is under the supervision of Mr. DeSouza, whose pay and that of the following establishment is included in the Staff Office account.

1 Band Master	... at Rs. 200
1 Mistri	... „ 8
1 Khallasi	... „ 5
1 Bhishti	... „ 3
Allowance of a clerk	... „ 1

60. Lezni Khan was appointed Band Master for the Cavalry band. He took special interest in giving instructions to the band, which is now in a far better condition than before. Lezni Khan was promoted to the rank of Duffadar and was to receive the pay of that rank in addition to Rs. 30 as allowance. He has, however, recently left the service.

61. Both the Regimental Hospitals were in charge of Hospital Assistant Ram Narain, who is well reported on.
Medical Charge.

Three other Hospital Assistants have recently been appointed. Ram narain with one assistant has been put in charge of the Cavalry Hospital and Gopal Das with an Assistant in the Infantry Hospital.

62. The following allowance for uniform was sanctioned during the year for the Cavalry, and the same rate has recently been sanctioned for the Infantry Hospital Assistants,—

Senior Hospital Assistant (ranking with Jemadar)	Rs. 32
Junior „ „ „ „ „	32
Compounders (ranking with non-commissioned officer)	„ 16 or 12-8
Dressers (ranking with sowar sepoy)	„ 16 or 12-8

63. Both the Hospitals are well situated and the rooms are clean and airy.

The general health, during the year, was good and sanitary arrangements satisfactory.

64. There were, at the commencement of the year, 569 horses in the Cavalry, of which 78 were rejected and three died during the year; 84 horses were supplied to the Regiment from the Horse Depôt and other Raj States, and 37 purchased at a cost of Rs. 10,439.
Horses.

The horses are well cared for and they are in excellent condition. The cost of feed of horses during the year was Rs. 55,241.

65. Tent pegging with lances and swords, lime cutting, polo, musical ride and lance exercise with music, are efficiently performed by the Cavalry.
Sports.

66. Comparative Statements are annexed, showing expenditure on the two regiments incurred during the year 1889-90 to 1892-93.

70. A committee, consisting of three Regimental Officers under the presidency of the Commanding Officer, has been appointed to regulate the expenditure of the Fund.

IV.—Transport.

71. The organization of the Transport was commenced in February 1892. It then consisted of the following animals :—

332 Ponies.
35 Mules.
3 Bullocks.
2 Buffaloes.

Out of the total of 332 ponies, 182 were purchased at a cost of Rs. 17,085, and the remaining were provided from the Raj stables. During the year, 46 ponies were purchased at a cost of Rs. 5,377, and 31 ponies were given from the Raj stables, making a total of 449.

72. In October 1892, the Cavalry Transport was separated from the Infantry, and the following scale was sanctioned for both the Regiments :—

Cavalry.				Infantry.
50 Mules	95 Mules.
275 Ponies	157 Ponies.
"	75 Carts.

73. At present there are 33 mules and 239 ponies in the Cavalry, and one mule and 97 ponies in the Infantry.

74. The establishment entertained for both the Cavalry and Infantry Transports is shewn below.

81. With the exception of the Bakhtawar Paltan of the Irregular Infantry and the 2nd Lancers of the Cavalry, which are fairly well equipped, the Irregular Forces are without drill or discipline. They are for the most part ill-paid and badly equipped. In the forts, as well as the city and the different Risalas, they are required to perform all the Police duties of the State.

82. The question of reducing the number of men and revising the scale of pay is engaging the attention of the Council.

83. The expenditure on the Bukshigari office, during the year under review, amounted to Rs. 5,837 against Rs. 5,813 in the previous year.

CHAPTER VI.

PART I.

Brief Description of the country.

90. The Ulwur State is situated between $27^{\circ}5'$ $76^{\circ}5'$ and $28^{\circ}15'$ latitude and between $76^{\circ}10'$ and $77^{\circ}15'$ longitude and comprises an area of about 3,000 square miles.

Position.

91. It is bounded on the north by the British District of Gurgaon, the Bawal Purgana of Nabha, and the Kotkasim Purgana of Jeypore; on the east by Bhurtpore and Gurgaon; on the south by Jeypore, and on the west by Jeypore, Kotputli, Nabha and Patiala territory.

Boundaries.

92. Ulwur, situated near the centre of the State, is the capital town.

Capital Town.

93. Ranges of hills, for the most part parallel, run generally from north to south. The eastern portion of the state is open and highly cultivated. To the west of this plain is a mass of hills from 12 to 20 miles in breadth. They are a continuation of the Aravali range and are covered with grass and jungle. No valuable timber, however, grows on them.

Hills.

94. The hills are rich in mineral productions. Iron ore is found close to the surface in large quantities. There is a white marble quarry in the Pertabgarh subdivision, and red and white sandstone and slate quarries at other places. Silver, lead, copper, and sulphur are also found but in small quantities.

Mineral products.

95. Game is plentiful in the hilly tracts.

Game.

96. There are no natural lakes in Ulwur but there are several artificial ones, two of which only, the Seliserh and Deoti, are of any considerable size.

Lakes.

PART II.

DIVISION OF THE TERRITORY INTO TEHSILS.

97. The State is divided into 12 Tehsils.

(1.) The Tijara Tehsil adjoins the Gurgaon district of British territory, Kot Kassim of Jeypore and the Kishengarh Tehsil in Ulwur. It is situated in the heart of Mewat and is about 257 square miles in extent.

Tijara Tehsil.

The soil is for the most part very poor, the best land being in the south-west. The chief crops grown are bajra and inferior pulses.

(2.) Kishengarh is the Northern Tehsil which adjoins Tijara on the west. It has Kot Kasim of Jeypore on its north. Like Tijara, this Tehsil is in Mewat.

Kishengarh Tehsil.

Its area is about 217 square miles. Half the soil of this Tehsil is good. The chief crops grown are in order of extent bajra, jawar, barley and cotton.

(3.) The northern Tehsil on the west of Kishengarh is Mandawar.

Mandawar Tehsil.

The foreign territory, adjoining it, is the Nabha Purgana of Bawal, and the group of isolated British villages of which Shahjahanpur is the chief. It is situated partly in the tract known as Raht and partly in Mewat. The area of this tehsil is about 229 square miles. The soil is, for the most part, good, though there is a large area of inferior quality. The chief crops grown are, in order of quantity, bajra, gram, barley and jawar.

(4.) Behror Tehsil forms the north-west territory of the State.

Behror Tehsil.

It is in the Rahat and has an area of 264 square miles.

About half the soil of this Tehsil is good, the other half, inferior and bad. The chief crops grown are in order of extent bajra, moth, gram and barley.

The Middle Tehsils or those just below the four, and just above the four southern are Gobindgarh, Ramgarh, Ulwur and Bansur.

(5.) Gobindgarh is the eastern-most of the Middle Tehsils. It forms a peninsular of Ulwur in Bhurtpore territory. It is in Mewat and is about 52 square miles in extent.

Gobindgarh Tehsil.

The soil of this Tehsil is for the most part good. The chief crops grown are bajra, cotton and jawar.

(6.) Ramgarh is the Middle Tehsil next to Gobindgarh which it adjoins but most of its eastern border lies along Bhurtpore territory. It also is in Mewat.

Ramgarh Tehsil.

Its extent is about 146 square miles.

The soil is generally rich where subject to floods, elsewhere it is for the most part light. The chief crops grown are bajra, barley and jawar.

(7.) Ulwur Tehsil adjoins Ramgarh on the west. It is the only

Ulwur Tehsil.

tehsil in the State which at no point touches foreign territory. It is situated in Mewat and is 496 square miles in extent.

This Tehsil contains most of the catchment area of the two most important irrigating nallas, the Rupa Rail and the Chuhar Sidh, but a portion of the waters of the Rupa Rail and its tributaries is held back by the Seliserh Bund. From Seliserh comes the water, which conveyed by a canal, beautifies the environs of the city.

(8.) Bansur, the last of the Middle Tehsils, adjoins the Ulwar Tehsil. Kotputli belonging to the Raja of Khetri, and Jeypore territory bound it on the west. Part of it is in Raht, part in the Wāl, a tract lying south of the Raht and occupied chiefly by Shekhawat Thakurs. It is 330 square miles in extent.

Bansur Tehsil.

(9.) Kathumar is the most eastern of the four southern Tehsils. It has Bhurtapore territory on three sides of it. Its area is 122 square miles.

Kathumar Tehsil.

About $\frac{2}{3}$ of the soil is of inferior quality ; the rest is good.

The chief crops grown are, in order of extent, bajra, moth, jawar, cotton and barley.

(10.) Lachmangarh is the southern Tehsil next to Kathumar. It is in Narukhand and touches Bhurtapore territory, but its southern border chiefly lies along Jeypore. The area of the Tehsil is 221 square miles. The soil of this Tehsil is for the most part light, where unaffected by floods.

Lachmangarh Tehsil.

The chief crops grown are, in order of extent, bajra, moth, jawar, barley, cotton and gram.

The principal irrigating nalla flows from the Bund at Lachmangarh, and from Ghat, on the Rupa Rail ; a canal brings water to certain villages after the rains.

(11.) Rajgarh is the next of the southern Tehsils. It too is partly in Narukhand but its Western portion was the Bargujar and Rajawat country. Jeypore lies along its southern border. Its area is 373 square miles. The soil of this Tehsil is nearly all good.

Rajgarh Tehsil.

The chief crops grown are, in order of extent, barley, moth, cotton, bajra and jawar

(12.) Thana Ghazi is the fourth southern Tehsil. It adjoins Rajgarh and has Jeypore territory on its south and West.

Thana Ghazi Tehsil.

The area of this Tehsil is 287 square miles.

The soil of this Tehsil is for the most part super-excellent, not more than 10 per cent. of it is bad or inferior. The principal crops grown are Indian corn, barley and moth,

104. The following statement shows the demand and collections of the Sambat years 1949 and 1950 :—

Demand and Collections.

Difference	+5,203	—584	+4,621	+10,605	...	+10,605	—5,985

The revenue demand remained nearly the same as in the previous year.

105. Of the total demand of Rs. 20,65,952 including the outstanding balance of the previous year Rs. 20,57,812 or 99·6 per cent. against Rs. 20,47,207 or 99·33 in the preceding year were collected, leaving a balance outstanding at the close of the year of Rs. 8,140.

106. It may be observed that the balance of Rs. 8,140 represents the current outstanding balance only and should not be mixed up with the old, which amounts to Rs. 8,80,460. It appears desirable to give below a detail of the balances for the last ten years outstanding at the close of each year :—

107. The year Sambat 1934 was a famine year, when a great number of cultivators emigrated to different parts in Rajputana. Large arrears of revenue therefore remained outstanding and the annual revenue demand could not be collected in full for several succeeding years. This accounts for the large outstanding balance, exhibited in the above statement. Every effort is being made to reduce it, but it is probable that, on the revision of the existing settlement, the greater part of this old outstanding balance will have to be written off.

108. It may however be said to the credit of the administration that very few distress warrants were issued in the collection of revenue. In three or four Tehsils the revenue demand was paid in on the appointed date, without a single call. Not a single Tehsil messenger is reported to have been sent out to the villages to remind the Zamindars of the time, when the instalments fell due.

109. Loan to agriculturists :—There was on the first of September 1892 an outstanding balance of Rs. 1,10,053, and advances amounting to Rs. 11,008, as against Rs. 13,020 of 1891-92, were further made during the year making a total of Rs. 1,21,061. Of this, Rs. 27,205 were collected, leaving a balance of Rs. 93,855 outstanding at the close of the year.

110. Fourteen new wells and two kutchha bunds were constructed by means of Tacavi advances during the year.

111. No interest is charged on advances made to the agriculturists for improvements of land and other agricultural purposes.

112. Advances made for purchase of bullocks and seeds are, as a rule, recovered within the year, while those for construction of wells and bunds are realized according to the instalments fixed at the time, the advances are made.

113. As has been explained above, a large number of agriculturists emigrated to different parts of Rajputana, during the famine year 1877-78. Most of them have since returned and settled in their respective villages. Every facility is afforded to them as also to new comers to settle in the State. They are provided with sufficient land to cultivate and live on, and when necessary, wood and other materials are supplied to them free of cost for making their huts. Pecuniary help is also freely given to agriculturists, whose houses are destroyed by fire as also to new settlers.

114. In addition to wood and straw, allowed from the State reserves, Rs. 318 were, during the year under review, paid in cash to those who were considered deserving of such help.

115. It is a matter of gratification to note that a large number of agriculturists have come and settled in different parts of the State during the past ten years, as will be seen from the following Statement.

The large increase under receipts is due to better management and to fruits and other garden produce having been sold to greater advantage.

The slight increase under expenditure may be explained by the fact, that the cost of two gardens formerly charged to the municipality and Bakhshigari respectively were added to the garden account, and that the income of Khawas Jiwan Lal's garden (which was temporarily attached with other property) amounting to Rs. 556 had to be refunded to the owner on his property being released.

125. The road tree plantation was continued as usual. About 500 trees were planted on the sides of the different roads during the year.

PART III.

CANALS.

126. Almost all the gardens in Ulwar and a number of fields in Khora, Sonawa, Umran, Leisari and several other villages are watered from Seliserh by means of aqueducts built for the purpose.

Seliserh Lake.

127. Nadighat irrigates about 15 villages in Lachmangarh Tehsil and the Dharampura canal, two or three villages, according to the supply of water available.

Nadighat.

128. The income derived from irrigation is shown below :—

Income and Expenditure.

From Seliserh lake irrigation	...	Rs.	9,468	0	0
„ Nadighat irrigation	...	„	4,685	13	0
„ Dharampura irrigation	...	„	217	2	6
Land irrigated from State wells	...	„	1,822	13	0
Total	...	Rs.	16,193	12	6

To this may be added :—

1. Miscellaneous items	...	Rs.	542	7	0
2. Recovery of arrears	...	„	332	14	0
Grand Total	...	Rs.	17,069	1	0

Against this, may be put down the disbursements made during the year under this head :—

1. Establishment Charges	...	Rs.	1,158	0	0
2. Lumberdari Fees	...	„	110	10	0
3. Miscellaneous Charges	...	„	108	4	0
Total	...	Rs.	1,376	14	0

This leaves a net profit to the State of Rs 15,692-3-6.

It may be noted here that the figure shown against Seliserh does not represent the actual income, as no credit is given in the account for water supplied to the different gardens in Ulwar,

PART IV.

REVENUE CASES.

129. The total number of cases disposed of by the Revenue Court during the past two years are shown below:—
Disposal of cases by the Deputy Collector.

Number.	Particulars.	1893.			1892.
		Judicial	Miscellaneous.	Total.	Judicial.	Miscellaneous.	Total.
1	Cases pending at the commencement of the year	163	8	171	159	20	179
2	Instituted during the year ...	3,583	4,851	8,434	3,783	4,700	8,483
3	Total ...	3,746	4,859	8,605	3,942	4,720	8,662
4	Disposed of during the year ...	3,586	4,839	8,425	3,779	4,712	8,491
5	Pending at the close of the year ...	160	20	180	163	8	171

All cases appertaining to disputes regarding Kasht, Biswadari and Lumberdari rights, rent, partition, mortgage and sale of arable lands, mutation of mafi and Biswadari holdings are included under Judicial, while files and papers relating to departmental arrangements, such as, appointment, leave, dismissal, and other miscellaneous cases are included under miscellaneous.

130. The Tehsildars are empowered to decide cases relating to:—
Powers of Tehsildars.

1. Non-payment of rent within a year, the subject matter of which does not exceed Rs. 100.
2. Disputes regarding kasht (cultivation).
3. Field boundary disputes.
4. Mujrai, one year.
5. Disputes regarding manure, mutation of names of biswadars not receiving mujrai, and other miscellaneous cases.

In cases falling within the Jurisdiction of the Deputy Collector, the preliminary investigations are, as a rule, made by the Tehsildars and the case is finally decided by the Deputy Collector.

131. The cases decided by the Tehsildars on the revenue side are shown below :—

Disposal of cases by Tehsildars.

No.	Particulars.	1893.	1892.
1	Cases pending at the commencement of the year.	593	539
2	Instituted during the year	5,349	5,628

5	Disposed of during the year	5,403	5,529
6	Pending at the close of the year	539	638

CHAPTER VIII.

SETTLEMENT OPERATIONS.

132. The period, for which the existing Revenue Settlement had been made, expired in August 1892, and an extension of two years was granted with a view to arrange for the services of an experienced settlement officer to take up the settlement operations of the state. An application was accordingly, made to the Local administration for a European officer of experience and a net salary, exclusive of pensionary and leave allowance, of Rs. 1,200 was offered, but it has not yet been found possible to secure the services of a settlement officer.

133. In May last, it was considered desirable to instruct the Patwaris of the State in surveying, calculation of areas and preparation of settlement records, so that their services could be utilized in the revision of settlement, thereby effecting a great saving in expenditure. With this object in view, the twelve Tehsils in the State were formed into 4 circles as follows :—

- | | | | | |
|----|-------------|-----|---|---|
| 1. | Ulwar | ... | { | (a.) Ulwar.
(b.) Ramgarh.
(c.) Rajgarh. |
| 2. | Lachmangarh | ... | { | (a.) Lachmangarh.
(b.) Gobindgarh.
(c.) Kathumar. |
| 3. | Kishengarh | ... | { | (a.) Kishengarh.
(b.) Mundawar.
(c.) Tijara. |
| 4. | Bansur | ... | { | (a.) Bansur.
(b.) Thana Ghazi.
(c.) Behror. |

134. Lala Gauri Sahai Head Munserim was appointed to superintend the instruction of Patwaris throughout the State and two Naib Munserims on Rs. 15 each were appointed to assist him.

Four instructors on Rs. 15 each were appointed to instruct the Patwaris in the four circles above mentioned.

It was further arranged that out of the 454 Patwaris on the list, 25 in each circle, making a total of 100, were to receive instruction at a time, so that the current work should not suffer.

135. In place of the Patwaris sent out for receiving instruction, substitutes had to be appointed to carry on the current work. They were paid at the rate of Rs. 5 per month each, and an allowance of Rs. 3 was given to each Patwari who went through the course of instruction.

136. 193 Patwaris joined the classes during the year, of whom 99 returned to their respective villages after completing their course and 94 remained under tuition at the close of the year.

CHAPTER IX.

NAZUL DEPARTMENT.

137. Munshi Chuttan Lal is in charge of the Department under the control of the Deputy Collector. He keeps a record of all lands and houses, being the property of the State, registers all documents of mortgages and sales of houses executed by the public, and issues Pattas there of under the signature of the Council.

138. The detail of receipts and disbursements under this head is given below :—

Financial result.

No.	Receipts.	Amount.		No.	Disbursements.	Amount.
1	Sale proceeds of State property.	3,774	2 0	1	Pay of establishment ...	2,178	15 0
2	Fees on sale deeds ...	3,781	3 3	2	Contingencies ...	217	8 9
3	Fees on Mortgage deeds ...	555	8 6		Total ...	2,396	7 9
4	Rent of land and houses ...	749	12 0
5	Miscellaneous ...	187	7 3		Balance ...	6,651	9 3
	Total ...	9,048	1 0		Total ...	9,048	1 0

It will be seen that the net receipts, after payment of expenditure, amount to Rs. 6,652.

139. There were 94 cases pending at the commencement of the year and 781 cases were instituted during the year, making a total of 875. Of these, 792 were disposed of, leaving a balance of 83 cases at the close of the year.

Nazul cases.

CHAPTER X.

REGISTRATION OF DOCUMENTS BY THE REVENUE COURTS.

140. As explained above, all documents relating to mortgage and sale of land (not being arable land) and houses are registered by the Superintendent of Nazul ; those appertaining to arable land are registered by the Tehsildars and the Deputy Collector. The following documents of the latter description were, during the year, registered by the Revenue Courts :—

1. Mortgage deeds	70
2. Sale deeds	13
3. Deeds of gift	5
4. Lease of a village	1
Total ...			89

Of the nominal value of Rs. 21,859. Rs. 76 were realized on account of Registration fees.

141. The registration of documents in this State is not compulsory, but is optional. It may be noted that when the rules on the subject were framed in 1875, it was laid down that the registration would be left optional for a year or so, but that, after the people had begun to appreciate its benefits, it would be made compulsory. No action, however, seems to have been taken since. Measures will now be taken to make the registration of certain classes of documents compulsory.

CHAPTER XI.

EXCISE.

PART I.

ABKARI DEPARTMENT.

142. The contract for the sale of country liquor was held by Bhura and Chhaju for Rs. 7,000 during the year. This sum was paid into the Treasury by fixed instalments. There are 112 stills in the State. The contractor issues licenses on payment of sums varying from Rs. 1,550 to Rs. 11 to the shopkeepers.

Country Liquor.

143. The rate at which liquor was sold to the public is given below :—

Rate of Sale.

Ekbara—(once distilled) three bottles per rupee.

Dobara—(twice distilled) two bottles per rupee.

144. The term, for which the contract was given, expired on the 31st August 1893, and a fresh contract for the next three years was granted, commencing from September 1893, at Rs. 12,800 a year.

Fresh Contract.

145. No case of illicit sale of liquor or infringement of rules was reported during the year.

Illicit sale of Liquor, &c.

PART II.

DRUGS.

146. The monopoly for the sale and import of drugs was granted to a contractor for Rs. 7,100 annually, with effect from September 1888 to August 1893. The contract money was paid by fixed instalments into the State Treasury.

Monopoly for Sale.

147. There were 52 shops of license holders in the State. The amount charged by the contractor for each license varied from Rs. 906 to Rs. 6.

License-holders.

148. No case of illicit sale, import, &c. of drugs was reported during the year.

Illicit Sale, &c.

149. At the expiry of the contract on 31st August 1893, a fresh contract for the next three years was granted to Gobind Buksh, Jagan Nath, &c. at a fixed annual sum of Rs. 10,550.

Fresh Contract.

CHAPTER XII.

STONE QUARRIES.

150. In addition to the 47 quarries, which were worked during the previous year, six new quarries were opened during the year under report, making a total of 53. Of these, 15 were worked departmentally, and the remaining 38 by contractors under the supervision of the Superintendent of Mines and his staff.

151. The following is a statement of receipts and expenditure under this head :—

152. Ever since 1889, the Rajwadi Glass Manufacturing Company, Limited, were desirous of entering into an agreement with the State for working quarries for crystal, flint, quartz and limestone, lying within certain specified areas. After a long and protracted correspondence extending over three years, the Indenture, specifying the terms agreed to between the Ulwar Durbar, on the one side, and the Rajwadi Glass Manufacturing Company, Limited, on the other, was drawn up, signed and executed in the month of March 1893. Under the terms of the Indenture the lessees are required to commence work at the quarries within eighteen months from the 13th March 1893. The work has, however, not yet commenced.

CHAPTER XIII.

IRON FURNACES.

153. This department is in charge of Dhabai Har Narain. It is worked by contract, which for the year under report, was let for Rs. 1,581.

Contract.

154. The year opened with a stock of things made of iron worth Rs. 10,193-0-0.

155. It will be observed that the contract money was not realized in full; there was a balance of Rs. 580 due by the contractor at the close of the year.

Outstanding balance.

In addition to this, there was an outstanding balance of previous years amounting to Rs. 7,543, making a total balance of Rs. 8,122.

Steps will be taken to recover this outstanding balance as far as possible.

CHAPTER XIV.

SALT AND SALTPETRE.

156. No case of illicit manufacture of salt was reported during the year. The Inspector of the Indian Salt Revenue made a tour of inspection throughout the State from 21st March to 14th April 1893, but could discover no trace of illicit manufacture of salt. In his concluding remarks he says "In every direction, I found satisfactory arrangements existing for the prevention of salt manufacture."

157. The contract for the manufacture of saltpetre was granted to one Ajeet Singh of Muttra for a period of seven years commencing from 1891. The rates of royalty payable by the contractor were fixed at four annas per maund of refined, and one anna per every maund of crude saltpetre exported from the State. The contractor manufactured 515 maunds of crude and 107 maunds of refined saltpetre, of which 388 maunds of crude and 57 maunds of refined saltpetre were exported. Rs. 32 were realized as royalty on the exported saltpetre, and 127 maunds of saltpetre remained in stock.

158. The contractor relaxed the work in August last and owing to his continued absence and carelessness, the contract had to be set aside. Arrangements are being made to let it out to another man on terms more favourable to the State.

CHAPTER XV.

TRADE.

159. The indigo factory at Bontoli in Tehsil Lachmangarb and the hydraulic cotton press in Ulwar were worked during the year.

Indigo factory and cotton press.

160. The Ulwar cotton press was established in 1883, and the monopoly for pressing cotton exported from Ulwar was granted to Seths Harmukh Roy Gobind Ram of Khurja for a period of 10 years. The land, required for the Press, was given free of cost, and the cotton, brought into the town, was exempted from octroi duty. No royalty was charged for cotton pressed at the press.

Ulwar hydraulic cotton press.

In fact, every facility was given to the proprietors to make the enterprise a success.

161. 7,268 bales containing 34,250 maunds of cotton were pressed during the year. Of these 22,000 maunds represent the cotton brought in from the Ulwar district, the remaining 1,225 maunds were imported from Nagina, Firozapore, Jhar, and Bandikui for pressing purposes.

Number of bales pressed.

162. Each bale pressed was charged for at Rs. 3-4-0. It may be observed that, of the total number of bales, 5,425 belonged exclusively to the proprietors of the press, and the remaining 1,843 bales to the other traders.

Charge per bale.

163. Calculating the charge on 7,268 bales at Rs. 3-4-0 per bale, the total receipts amounted to Rs. 23,621; deducting Rs. 17,353 on account of cost of making bales, purchase of coals, interest on the outlay and other pressing charges at an assumed rate of Rs. 2-4-0 per bale, and Rs. 1,000 on account of repairs to the machinery and buildings, &c., the net profits to the proprietors may be put down at Rs. 6,268.

Net profits to the proprietors.

164. About 500 labourers (males, females, and children about the age of 15 years) were employed in this work. The rate of wages varied from two annas to eight annas a day.

Labourers employed.

165. The rate of cotton averaged between Rs. 14 and 20 per maund during the year.

Average rate of cotton.

166. Cotton was exported mainly to Bombay and a limited number of bales was sent to Calcutta and Ahmedabad.

Export of cotton.

167. As the monopoly was to expire at the end of March 1894, it was considered expedient to grant the lease earlier for a further period, to allow the lessee time for making his arrangement for the purchase of cotton. In November 1893,

Fresh monopoly.

the monopoly was renewed in favor of Seths Harmukh Roy Gobind Ram for a further period of ten years, commencing from 1st April 1894 to the end of March 1904. It was agreed that the proprietors of the press pay a royalty of annas 5 for each bale pressed at the press, that the charges per bale remain the same as heretofore, viz., Rs. 3-4-0, that in case the lessees intend to raise the rates at any subsequent time, they would obtain previous sanction, but that in no case would the rates be higher than those prevailing in any other State in Rajputana.

168. This arrangement is expected to bring in annually an additional revenue to the State of Rs. 2,500 nearly.

Additional Revenue to the State.

169. There are no statistics of rail-borne traffic available in this State, but from local inquiries it appears that wheat, oil-seeds, barley, and gram were imported from Bandikui, Dausa, Bhatinda, Sirsa, Bhiwani, Gopalgarh and Sikri to the extent of 50,000 maunds and that about 20,000 maunds of bajra, guar, and oil-seeds were exported to Ahmedabad and other places.

Imports and exports of grain, &c.

CHAPTER XVI.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

PART I.

JUDICIAL TRIBUNALS, &c.

Judicial tribunals.

170. The following Judicial tribunals were at work during the year:—

1. The State Council exercising the powers of a High Court, subject to the revisionary authority of the Political Agent.
2. The District and Sessions Judge.
3. The Foujdar exercising the powers of a Magistrate of the 1st Class.
4. The Civil Court exercising the powers of a subordinate Judge of the 1st class.

The Officer presiding over this Court has power to hear all civil cases of the value of Rs. 2,000 and under, and all appeals from the courts of the Tehsildars.

5. The Tehsildar's Courts. The Tehsildars have power to hear money cases up to Rs. 100 ; also petty criminal cases.

171. There is no regular code of law in force in the State, but the Courts are generally guided by the principles of the British Laws, which are only very imperfectly understood.

Law.

Circulars.

172. A number of stray circulars have from time to time been issued by the Durbar, the Political Agent and the State Council, but they are very often neglected.

Codification of circulars and framing simple laws.

173. It is extremely desirable to codify all the circulars and to frame simple laws criminal, as well as civil, based on the British Laws, to suit the requirements of the State. It is not considered advisable to hamper the courts by elaborate laws which the judges and the people are incapable to grasp.

174. Steps are being taken to collect all the rules and circulars extant in the State, and when this is done, they will be codified. As time permits, opportunity will be taken to frame a set of simple Civil and Criminal laws for the guidance of the Courts.

PART II.

THE COURT OF APPEALS.

175. The post of the District and Sessions Judge was held by Munshi Ram Dial Singh during the year.

District, and Session's Judge.

175. This court hears :—

Powers.

1. Appeals from the orders passed by the Civil and Criminal Courts.
2. Nazul appeals from the orders of the Revenue Court.
3. Cases of original Civil Jurisdiction, the subject matter of which exceeds Rs. 2,000.
4. Sessions cases.

177. The following tables show the number of original cases and appeals instituted during the year under review.

PART III.

ADMINISTRATION OF CIVIL JUSTICE.

184. Munshi Gopal Krishn held the post of Civil Judge during the year.

185. The total cost of the Civil administration during the year was Rs. 7,199 against the total receipts of Rs. 25,638, leaving a net income to the State Rs. 18,438 as shown in the following statement. The Tehsildars who do part of the civil work receive their entire salaries from the Revenue Department. No portion of their pay is charged to the Civil Department.

PART IV.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE.

197. Molvi Dilawar Ali held the post of Foujdar (Magistrate 1st Class) during the year.

Magistrate.

198. The amount of work done by the Criminal Courts during the year is shown in the following statement.

199. It will be observed that the number of cases tried by the Criminal Court is very large, and it is almost impossible for one officer to get through all the cases carefully. The result is, that in most of the petty cases, the Foujdar has to rely entirely on the reports of Kotwals and Thanadars. The statements of criminals and witnesses on petty as well as serious cases are, for the most part, recorded by the subordinate clerks which is highly objectionable. No steps can however be taken to remedy this evil until another officer is appointed to assist the Foujdar. This would mean increased expenditure.

An Assistant to the Foujdar required.

PART V.

JAIL.

Superintendent of Jail.

205. Mr. George Heatherly continued to superintend the Ulwar Jail.

206. The average daily number of prisoners in the Jail during the years 1892 and 1893 has been as follows:—

Average daily number of prisoners.

Description.				1892.	1893.
Convicts	234	298

Total				246	317

207. The punishments awarded to the prisoners for offences against the discipline of the Jail are shown in the sub-joined table:—

Punishments.	(1.) Corporal punishments	59
	(2.) Reduced diets	165
	(3.) Other punishments	5
Total					229

208. No prisoner escaped during the year under report.

209. The total expenditure of the Jail under all heads amounted to Rs. 24,697-8-0, against Rs. 22,386-5-6, of the previous year showing an increase of Rs. 2,311-2-6. The detail is given below :—

No.	Description.			1892.			1893.
1	Rations	4,831	15	9	5,754	11	9
2	Clothing	1,316	15	0	1,458	3	0

6	Miscellaneous	1,064	6	0	1,107	9	3
Total				22,386	5	6	24,697	8	0

210. The cost of rations amounted to Rs. 5,754-11-9, which gives a monthly average of Re. 1-8-5 per head against Re. 1-10-6, of the previous year. The decrease is due to the rate of corn being comparatively cheaper than that of the preceding year.

211. The cost of clothing was Rs. 1,558-3-0 or six annas two pies per head per mensem against annas seven pies two in the previous year.

Clothing.

212. Under head establishment and pay of Jail Guard there is a decrease, which is mainly due to larger deductions having been made from pay of absentees, &c.

Establishment.

213. The Public Works charges show an increase of Rs. 1,698-1-0 which is attributed to the fact that two solitary cells were constructed in the Jail during the year.

Public Works charges.

214. The increase under head miscellaneous is only nominal and calls for no remarks.

Miscellaneous.

215. The receipts of the Jail amounted to Rs. 3,171-1-9, against Rs. 3,461-5-6, in the preceding year. The average remunerative labour done by each prisoner amounted to Rs. 0-13-6 per mensem against Re. 1-3-0 of the previous year, showing a decrease of annas five pies six. The reason assigned by the Superintendent of Jail is that two large carpets which were taken in hand could not be completed during the year and consequently their price could not be credited to the Jail account for the current year.

Receipts.

216. Comparing the cost of rations and clothing of each prisoner with the receipts from remunerative labour, there is a deficiency of Re. 1-1-1 per head per mensem to cover the expenditure.

Deficiency.

217. The health of the prisoners was, on the whole, satisfactory.

CHAPTER XVII.

MEDICAL SERVICE.

PART I.

DISPENSARIES.

220. Surgeon-Major A. S. Faulkner on return from leave, relieved
 Agency Surgeon. Surgeon-Major H. N. V. Harrington, Officiating Agency Surgeon on 12th October, 1893.

221. Miss Hannan, L. R. C. P. and S. I., was appointed to the medical charge of the Lady Dufferin Hospital on Lady Doctor. 8th November, 1892. She proceeded on six months' sick leave on the 1st May 1893, and was relieved by Female Doctor Miss Mackenzie, L. M. and S. The latter left Ulwar and her medical charge on 4th November, 1893. As Miss Hannan did not return to Ulwar, the post of Lady Doctor remained vacant till the end of the year and the work of the Hospital was carried on by the two senior female Hospital Assistants under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon.

222. It is satisfactory to note that no
 Epidemic. epidemic of any disease occurred during the year.

223. The system in vogue in the State
 Vital Statistics. for recording vital statistics is as follows :—

*A. Ulwar :—*A daily Statement of deaths which take place in the city of Ulwar and its vicinity is furnished direct from the Ulwar Kotwali to the Agency Surgeon's Office. A similar statement of deaths is also furnished from the Kotwali but through the Ulwar Tehsil.

Both the above Statements are prepared from the reports made by the city sweepers to the Kotwali.

*B. District :—*The Patwaris of villages are obliged to furnish the vital statistics of their respective circles of villages to their Tehsildars and from their reports a statement of births and deaths is made by each Tehsildar of the whole of his Tehsil. These are submitted to the Malsadar Court from each Tehsil from which source a general monthly statement of the whole state is compiled and submitted to the Agency Surgeon's Office.

224. The above system so far as it goes seems to be a fairly practical, one. The only flaw pointed out by the Agency Surgeon was the necessity for some means by which the original reports of the Patwaris of villages and of the sweepers in Ulwar could be verified.

225. At the suggestion of Doctor Faulkner a responsible Officer from the Ulwar Kotwali has been deputed to go round the city every day to verify and check the reports of the sweepers, while the Patwaris in the district have been directed to maintain and keep up a register of vital statistics which will be verified from time to time by Kanugoes and other Tehsil officials.

226. The total number of births reported during the year is 12,082, - ratio per thousand being 15.89.

Births.

227. The total number of deaths reported during the year is 6,022, rates per thousand being 7.92.

Deaths.

This shows that there was an increase of 6,060 births over deaths.

228. The total number of deaths recorded from diseases and injuries is as follows :—

Causes of deaths.

(1.)	Cholera	4
(2.)	Small-pox	66
(3.)	Fevers	4,700
(4.)	Dysentery	213
(5.)	Diarrhoea	137

(9.)	Snake bite, or killed by beasts	43
(10.)	All other causes	759

Total 6,022

229. The following table exhibits the total deaths in 1893 under different ages :—

(1.)	Under one year	954
(2.)	One and under five years	865
(3.)	Five and under 10 years	297
(4.)	Ten and under 15 years	256

234. The number of in-door patients was 1,151 against 1,153 in 1892, showing a decrease of two. Of the patients treated 915 were cured, 97 relieved, 86 discharged, 19 died and 34 remained under treatment at the end of the year. Ratio of deaths per cent. of the total treated was 1.63.

In-door patients.

235. Out-door patients numbered 72,689 against 63,555 in 1892. Of these 59,441 attended the dispensaries personally and 13,248 were represented by friends.

Out-door patients.

236. Of the total number of patients treated 48.97 per cent were adult males, 21.53 adult females and 29.50 per cent. children. The following figures show the number of patients according to classes :—

241. Sanitary questions continue to receive constant attention and special interest is being taken in the subject of village sanitation in the State.

Sanitary notes.

242. A very important suggestion with regard to village sanitation was lately made by the Agency Surgeon and the question has engaged special attention.

The Agency Surgeon suggested that the filth and refuse which is seen lying on either sides of the roads leading to villages should be accumulated in one place and two pits should be dug for this purpose at some distance from the village and that the filth should be placed in one pit and all the refuse in the other. He further suggested that the refuse being burnt and mixed with filth will produce the best manure and thus this scheme, if carried out, would secure the double advantage of cleaning the village and producing good manure.

243. The sanitary condition of the Ulwar city has been favourably reported on. The Agency Surgeon as President of the Municipality is in a position to recommend much which could be carried out with advantage and the Municipal Committee are both in earnest and willing to do all in their power to improve the general condition of the city.

244. The most difficult subject of the disposal of the city refuse is occupying the attention of the Council, and it is their intention to give a fair trial to an Incenerator suggested by the State Engineer. The Agency Surgeon has strongly recommended the Poudrette system as being inexpensive, effective and useful, while the trenching system is being given a fair trial. The city is comparatively clean and compares very favourably with other cities in Rajputana.

PART II.

VACCINATION.

245. It is very satisfactory to note that the general public in the Ulwar State have come to understand the advantages of vaccination. Though there are still people among the higher castes—especially Thakurs, who are conservative enough to prefer inoculation to vaccination. Yet the majority of the population has learnt to appreciate the benefits, resulting from vaccination. This is the reason why small-pox which was once so prevalent is now almost extinct in this State.

246. Owing to the difficulty in obtaining a sufficient quantity of lymph at the commencement of the working season, Surgeon-Major Faulkner had, in 1891, suggested or rather devised the plan of inoculating a young buffalo with human lymph. This plan has proved successful and now not only a large quantity of lymph is available, but the lymph that is produced is of an excellent quality.

247. The total population of the Ulwar State according to the Census of 1891, was 7,59,417 souls. The average number of vaccinators employed was 13 which gives one vaccinator to every 58,416 of the population. The total number of persons vaccinated during the year was 24,385.

Males	12,423
Females	11,962

Total 24,385

The total number of primary vaccinations amounted to 23,090, out of which only 24 were unsuccessful. The total number of re-vaccinations was 1,271, out of which 484 were unsuccessful.

248. The average number of persons vaccinated by each vaccinator was 1875·77. The total number of persons successfully vaccinated is stated to be 23,877 or 31·44 per 1,000 of the population. The percentage of successful operations was 99·90 in primary cases and 61·13 in re-vaccination. The native Superintendent visited 1,016 villages and found 7,335 cases successful, out of 7,377, the total number of cases visited by him. The Superintendent inspected 45 villages and found 4,930 cases successful, out of 4,958, the total number of cases visited.

249. The total expenditure of the Vaccination Department in this state amounted to Rs. 2,217-7-0 as below :—

CHAPTER XVIII.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The following remarks on Public Works in this state have been furnished by the State Engineer Mr. A. R. Macdonald.

Report on the working of the Public Works Department in the Ulwar state for the year, 1892-93.

250. The period embraced in this report is from the first September, 1892, to the 31st August, 1893, that being the official year in the state.

Period embraced in the report.

251. The Budget allotment for the year was four lacs of rupees, and the expenditure against this allotment was 2,94,672-14-10, as shown in the General abstract attached.

Budget allotment.

Extra work done, for Municipalities and other departments, amounted to Rs. 16,760-9-0, and works done by other departments and charged against the Public Works Department, amounted to Rs. 3,763-9-9, bringing up the total expenditure, on all heads, to Rs. 3,15,197-1-7.

252. The expenditure fell below the allotment for several reasons.

Expenditure.

First :—Many works allowed for in the Budget estimate for the year were not undertaken or curtailed.

Second :—The expenditure on irrigation projects fell below what was expected, owing mainly to the rain which fell at close intervals throughout the year. This, while flooding foundations and thus delaying work, often to a great extent, at one time of the year, encouraged the villagers to work in their fields and thus cut off to a large extent the supply of local labour.

Third :—A great difficulty in obtaining roofing material.

253. The state contains excellent slab quarries, and slabs from these are used to furnish most of the roofing.

Slabs.

The quarries are worked by villagers, in the neighbourhood, with vested interests, under the Superintendence of a Department separate from the Public Works and slabs are supplied at fixed rates to the Public Works, which rates, however, are lower than what the quarrymen can obtain by sale to private customers.

254. The result has up to date been disastrous to this Department and many buildings remained unroofed for months together and many were thus at a standstill at the close of the year which would have been easily completed.

255. Local labour for works in the State is employed as far as possible, and contractors from outside are not encouraged. The rates, which are very low compared with other parts of the country, also act very much as a preventive to men from outside applying for work.

Local labour.

256. No definite scheme had been sanctioned, at the close of the year, for improvement in the State by Public Works.

Scheme for Public Works.

257. A few tanks were started, but most of the work was confined to new buildings and repairs.

Tanks and buildings.

258. The accounts are kept in a form understood by the accounts Department of the State, such additional forms only being kept up in my office, as I have found necessary for check or other private information.

Accounts.

259. The Staff, who worked well during the year, was kept at the lowest strength with which it was found possible to carry on the works sanctioned.

Staff.

260. A general abstract of expenditure is attached, together with a statement of explanation of the more important works undertaken.

266. Rs. 11,716-9-3 were spent on the Lansdowne Kothee.
 Lansdowne Kothee.

This is a large building started in the time of the late Maharajah on the summit of a small hill close to the garden Palace at Ulwar.

267. The building is intended when finished to serve as a guest house for special European guests in the lower story and will have appartments in the upper story suitable for the private requirements of H. H. the Maharajah.

268. It has been decided that the work, which at first was pushed as quickly as possible, should now be proceeded with gradually, and allotment is made at the rate of 10,000 to 15,000 yearly which will enable the building to be completed in about ten or twelve years.

269. Rs. 20,532-0-6 were spent on the shooting lodge, at Seriska, started to commemorate the visit of H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught.
 Shooting lodge at Seriska.

This building is in the heart of the tiger shooting district and is a very large house capable of giving accommodation to 15 to 20 guests.

270. Its arrangement was suggested by the position of the tents, as pitched for the encampment of the Royal party.

271. This building like the Lansdowne Kothee is being gradually finished.

272. The remaining expenditure under this head, was on buildings of secondary importance.

275. Original Works, Religious buildings, Rs. 2,247-8-6, were spent on a temple started near the city palace.

The work was commenced with due rites, but difficulties about the allotment of funds arose and orders have been received to merely keep the work going.

ORIGINAL WORKS, JAIL.

Original Works, Jail.

276. The expenditure represents outlay on cells for solitary confinement of refractory prisoners.

ORIGINAL WORKS, IRRIGATION.

277. The expenditure principally represents outlay on several bunds started in the District, in sites chosen by H. H. the late Maharaja. The principal of these is that at Malana near Tehla.

Malana bund.

Here the proposal is to throw a masonry-dam, 40 feet high across a stream where it passes through a gorge between two hills. When complete, a fine tank will be formed.

The work on this, as on other new tanks, was nominal during the year, as already explained in the report.

The foundations were continually filled with water owing to frequent rain, and very little work could be done as there is no powerful pumping machinery in the State.

278. The annual repairs of various kinds call for little comment as they consisted of repairs of all kinds to buildings of every description.

Annual repairs

The majority of the old State buildings are in bad order and repairs which have been wanting for years are now being undertaken.

279. Rs. 43,145-5-6 were expended on roads out of which the sum of Rs. 39,732-4-6 was for reconstructing and metalling roads in or in the vicinity of Ulwar city ; some of which have not been touched for years.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

NOTE.—The period embraced in the report on the working of the Public Instruction is from 1st April 1893, to 31st March 1894.

282. The following table shows the attendance of pupils for the last two years :—

The total expenditure for the year 1893-94, being Rs. 38,790, the State had to contribute Rs. 18,487 towards the cost of public instruction against Rs. 17,996 in the preceding year.

286. The number of scholars on the rolls on 31st March 1894, was 458 against 440 on the same date of the preceding year. The average monthly and daily attendance stood at 452 and 365.1 against 442 and 343.58, respectively in the previous year.

287. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 10,415 against Rs. 10,431 in the preceding year. The cost per pupil amounted to Rs. 22-15-10, as compared with Rs. 23-9-7 in the preceding year.

288. During the year under report, nine candidates were sent up for the Entrance Examination, of whom seven passed. At the Middle Class Anglo-Vernacular Examination four out of seven candidates were successful.

289. Rupees 503 were distributed to the boys in the High school and Rs. 684 to the ex-students of the Ulwar school, prosecuting their studies in other Government institutions as detailed below :—

(1.) Ranjit Singh, reading in the Delhi Mission College for the B. A. Examination, Rs. 30 a month or Rs. 360 a year.

(2.) Sheonandan, studying in the Agra College, for the B. A. degree, Rs. 17 a month or Rs. 204 a year.

(3.) Champa Bai, prosecuting her studies in the Medical School at Agra, Rs. 10 a month or Rs. 120 a year.

In addition, there are seven ex-students of the Ulwar High school prosecuting their studies in the Agra College for the F. A. Examination. They receive scholarships aggregating Rs. 61 a month or Rs. 732 a year.

290. The number of scholars on the rolls on 31st March 1894, was 66 against 66 on the same date of the previous year. The average monthly and daily attendance stood at 70 and 44·51 against 64 and 41 respectively, in the previous year. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 3,490, against Rs. 3,317 in the preceding year. The cost per pupil fell from Rs. 51-13-3 to Rs. 49-13-8. There is a Boarding house attached to this school. It costs Rs. 1,186 a year as given below :—

Establishment	Rs. 216
Stipends	,, 970

291. The number of boys, attending this school on 31st March 1894, was 159 as compared with 149 on the same date last year. The average monthly and daily attendance rose from 147 and 93·45 to 156 and 106·44 respectively. The total expenditure was Rs. 2,183 against Rs. 2,129 in the previous year. The cost per pupil fell from Rs. 14-7-8 to Rs. 13-15-10. Out of the four boys who appeared at the Punjab Middle Examination, two passed.

292. The pupils attending this school on 31st March 1894, numbered 126, as compared with 145 on the same date last year. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 1,526 against Rs. 1,416 in the previous year. The cost per pupil rose from Rs. 10-2-11 to Rs. 11-11-9. At the Punjab Middle Examination, eight students were sent up, of whom only two passed.

293. The number of schools was the same as last year, viz., 20 ; 16 for boys and four for girls. The number of pupils attending the schools for boys on 31st March 1894, numbered 1,318. The average monthly and daily attendance stood at 1,299 and 1,055·15 respectively. The number of pupils attending the schools for girls on 31st March 1894, numbered 209. The average monthly and daily attendance stood at 196 and 171·94 respectively. The total expenditure on schools for girls amounted to Rs. 1,408.

294. The number of schools was the same as last year, viz., 92 ; 81 for boys and 11 for girls. The number of pupils attending the schools for boys on 31st March 1894, was 2,972. The average monthly and daily attendance stood at 2,941 and 2,329·87, respectively. The number of pupils attending the schools for girls on 31st March 1894, was 240. The average monthly and daily attendance was 231 and 196·63 respectively. The total expenditure of schools for girls amounted to Rs. 1,074.

295. The total amount of scholarships allowed for the boys' schools in the district was Rs. 745 and for the girls schools Rs. 208.

296. There are ten Mission schools in the Ulwur State, one High school and nine Primary schools.

The boys in the High school on 31st December 1893, numbered 236, and the average daily attendance was 185. In the year under report, six students were sent up for the Middle School Examination of the Punjab University of whom only two came out successful. The number of boys in the Primary schools was about 300.

CHAPTER XX

LOCAL POST OFFICES.

297. There is one Local suddar Post Office in Ulwur. It exchanges letters, parcels, &c., with the Imperial Post Office.

Local Suddar Post Office.

298. The Branch Post Offices are 18,

one at each Tehsil	12
Mandhan	1
Partabgarh	1

Narainpur	1
Bahadarpur	1
Total	18

The work of distributing letters, parcels, &c., in the mofussil is done by the Tehsil peons.

299. There are 35 runners drawing Rs. 4 or 5 per month. They carry mail bags from station to station which are equidistant from each other.

Runners.

300. The work done by the Local Post Office is exhibited in the following statement.

Amount of work done.

	Paid covers.	Bearing.	Registered covers.	Service covers.	Newspapers.	Parcels.	Money order intimation.	TOTAL.

The decrease in the receipts is only nominal.

303. The expenditure shows an increase of Rs. 236 which is due to the entertainment of two extra letter peons for the distribution of letters returned undelivered by the Branch Post Offices, the appointment of one extra temporary runner and to the increase in the pay of the Suddar Post Master of Rs. ten a month.

304. In the previous year the number of letters returned undelivered was 10,897, while that during the year under review was 5,735 showing a decrease of 5,162, due mainly to the entertainment of two extra post peons.

305. The system of working the Local Post Office is far from satisfactory and is susceptible of much improvement. Steps will be taken, as time permits, to place it on a sound footing.

CHAPTER XXI.

MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE.

306. There are eight Municipalities in the state.

CHAPTER XXII.

STABLES.

312. The stables including the stud, the carriage department, the elephants, the bullocks and camels next deserve mention.

Khas Tavela.—There were 197 animals in the saddle horse stables at the commencement of the year.

Horses	131
Mares	49
Foal	1
Bullocks and Buffaloes	16
Total			197

313. A comparative Statement is attached showing increase or decrease effected during the years 1891-92 and 1892-93.

No.	Particulars.	1891-92	1892-93
1	Number of animals at the commencement of the year ...	285	197
2	Added to the list of Stables during the year.	81	113
	Total ...	366	310
3	Transferred to the other Departments or otherwise disposed of ...	169	77
4	Remaining at the close of the year ...	197	233

314. The detail of animals in the stables at the close of the year 1892-93 is given below :—

State Horses	133
„ Mares	80
„ Foals	3
Bullocks and buffaloes	17
Total			233

315. Des. Taluka or Stud.—This is an establishment for breeding purposes. The number of animals at the commencement of the year was :—

Stallions	10

Total			228

318. It is under contemplation to increase the number of mares for breeding purposes. The average number of horses required for the Imperial Service Cavalry in place of those, cast annually, is 75, and efforts are being made to supply the regiment with home bred horses instead of having to buy them at the different fares at exorbitant prices.

319. Horse Dépôt.—Foals over nine months of age are transferred from the Des-Taluka to the Dépôt where separate enclosures are provided for colts and fillies.

320. The number of animals at the commencement of the year was :—

Horses	2
Mares	6
Colts	110
Fillies	124
Mules	6
Bullocks and buffaloes	17
Total			265

To these may be added 89 animals brought on the list of the Depôt during the year, making a total of 354 animals, deducting 89 animals transferred to other Departments, there remained 265 animals at the close of the year, as detailed below :—

Horses	2
Mares	6
Colts	109
Fillies	115
